

Strive For A Mansion

Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but that meat which endureth unto everlasting life...
(John 6:27)

T.L.H.

Tania L. Henry

1. In this life we look at our neigh - bor with his
2. In this life we work for a liv - ing. We
3. In this life there are those who are strug - gling. They have man - sion built up on a hill, And we strive for these strive for the high - est of pay. We're too bu - sy for fal - len in sin by the way. They seek for the things. What joy can they bring? There's a void they ne - ver can fam' - ly, too bu - sy for God and we e - ven for - get to truth and can - not ob - tain. Oh, my broth - er, take time to ex -

CHORUS
fill.
pray. Why don't we strive for a man - sion in Hea - ven?
plain.

Wast - ed years, they can - not be re - deemed. In - stead of spend - ing all our time in van - i - ty and pride, why don't we

Verses 1, 2 Verse 3 strive for a man - sion in Heav'n? Man - sion in Heav'n!
rit.

Working hard for earthly things,
Striving for comforts that they bring:
A stately house, and fashioned clothes,
Adorning man who onward goes,

Forgetting that he's perishing,
He labours on not noticing
Until the years have passed him by
And death draws near; he wonders why,

Why did he strive for things that pass,
Instead of Heav'nly things that last?
The earthly things that money buys
Cannot be taken when he dies.

But to strive for a mansion in Heaven fair,
Will attain all the glories awaiting there.
For what profit doth a mortal gain,
If his soul is lost on Judgement day?